v2.4honline.com

Club: At Large

Project: New Member Guide

Every class we will provide youth with at least one snack. We will take into consideration dietary restrictions. This is why completing 4-H Online enrollment is so important!

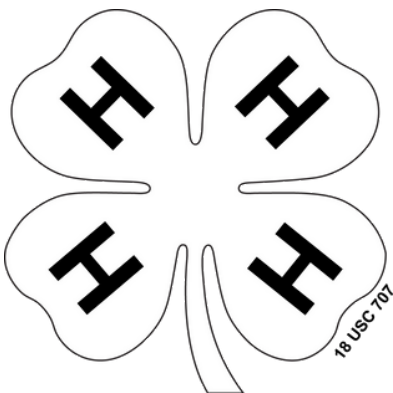

Items to Bring:

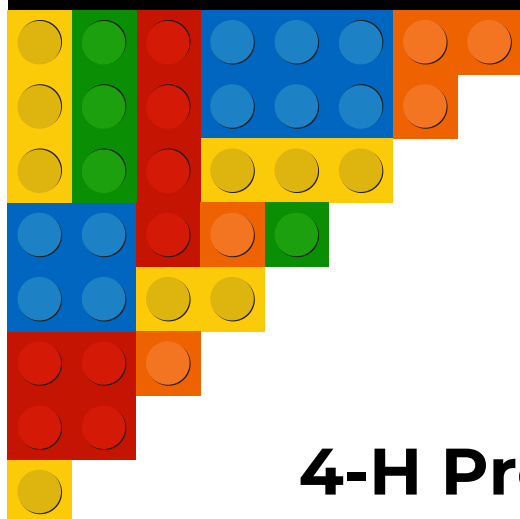

Water Bottle, Close-toed shoes, a good attitude, and willingness to try new things!

Cancellation Policy: As we know unforeseen circumstances can occur, We are unable to provide credits for classes with less than a two-week notice to the class. If you need to cancel a class reservation, please contact 4-H Agent, Molly directly. molly_murray@ncsu.edu 704-920-3310

The objectives of Cabarrus County 4-H Summer Programs are as follows: To inspire youth and to help them find their "spark". A spark is a moment of interest that inspires a child to learn by doing. To enhance leadership, communication, teamwork, decision-making, and career-readiness skills. To foster engagement, civic responsibility, and a sense of belonging and connection in Cabarrus County youth.

YEAR ROUND OPPORTUNITIES!

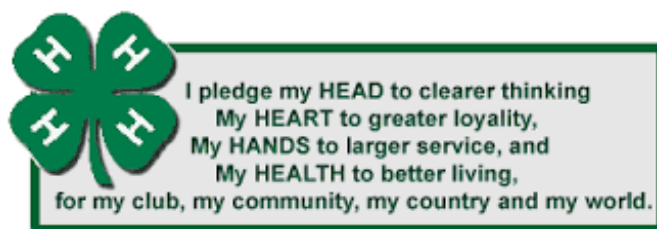

WHAT'S NEXT?

4-H Projects & Clubs

Cabarrus County 4-H supports youth learning all they can about a topic that interests them. If you are interested in learning more about a specific topic, joining a club can help you explore more. Youth are encouraged to complete a year-long 4-H project, collecting experiences related to their interests. Project Records help build organizational skills, as well as focus on sharing what is learned with others through community service, leadership & citizenship. Club volunteers & 4-H staff are here to help youth make the most of their 4-H projects.

We are always seeking adult volunteers to start or enhance existing 4-H Clubs. Inquire today!

Contact your 4-H Agent for more information.
